Dear Pastor and Church,

Friend Day

What a day we had on April the 30th our first friend day this year. A total attendance of 22 with 7 of them being visitors.

Brian Johnson, missionary to Lithuania, was our guest speaker, and did a tremendous job preaching the Word of God. It was so exciting to see the members of the church growing and becoming more and more the soul winners they ought to be.

Services for Refugees

We started an outreach program for refugees on April the 29th. The refugee camp here in Ingolstadt houses Africans from various countries in Africa, but the ones that attended our services were all from Nigeria. Most of them claim to be Baptist (whether or not that is the case, we will find out), others say they are just evangelical. Since they only speak and understand English (other than their native tongue), we will be holding special services for them on Saturdays in English. All other services are in German and would not do them any good. I had missionary Brian Johnson preach to them, since he was visiting for our friend day.

Prayer Request

Salvation: Silvia, Jürgen, Regina, Denis, Teresa, Patrick and Stefan
Baptism: Madleen, Tanja, Lisa, Chris and Saskia

Because of Christ,

Seth Richards
